I am directed to invite a reference to this Department letter No.55(2)-Tr.(W)/39, dated the 22nd July 1940, on the above subject, and to say that the trading permits under sub-rule (3) read with sub-rule (1) of rule 104 of the Defence of India Rules have been accorded from time to time to enemy subjects carrying on the profession of doctors or artists in the country but no uniform practice has been observed in all provinces.

2. A non-interned enemy subject practising a "profession" carries on business and is thus an "enemy firm" within the meaning of rule 103(2) of the Defence of India Rules. I am to request that cases of such enemy subjects who are engaged in practising any profession and in respect of whom trading permits have not so far been granted, may be reviewed and those in ~~kk~~ whose favour the Provincial Government/you wish the ban under rule 104(1) and (3) of the Defence of India Rules to be lifted, may be referred to the Controller of Enemy Firms, Bombay, with such detailed particulars as may be available. The Controller is being instructed to report these cases to the Government of India for orders.

3. It is not intended, as a result of this review, to modify in any way the policy laid down in paragraph 2 of the Home Department letter No.67/15/40-Political (E), dated the 11th August 1941, namely that there should be as little interference as possible with the legitimate pursuits of enemy subjects at liberty and that they should be encouraged to earn their own living.
